

Name:

Date:

Hawaiian Land Divisions

Crossword Puzzle

Down:

1. When ahupua'a is directly translated from Hawaiian to English it says...
2. Large section of divided land. O'ahu has 6 of these.
4. Hawaiian word for house
5. The section of the ahupua'a where most people lived and is used for growing food.
8. The section of the ahupua'a that is closest to the ocean and where fishponds are found.

Across:

3. Called a loko i'a in Hawaiian, these were built at the edge of land with rocks walls that have gates in them.
6. A smaller area than a moku. The boundaries of this were usually set by high ridges and ran from mauka to makai.
7. The highest section of the ahupua'a is where the water is collected.
9. A wetland kalo (also known as taro) patches in which fresh water from streams are used to grow the crops.
10. A general term for a dividing line that marks the limits of an area.